Gents,

Good morning. I will start to stream Assessments related materials to you in order to start your COAST indoctrination. You will get several FMs, pamphlets, and articles related to Assessments and other subject areas where you will likely dabble in theater. They are provided FYSA.

Sorry for crushing the inbox with #1, but attached you will find the latest Army FM that address Assessments. Recommend focusing on Chapter 6 and Appendix H. What is described is the best we have seen in accurately detailing the theory of the current Assessments processes. Of course, you will see firsthand that the practical application is still much different than theory.

More to follow,
Doug
