

MCQ for a Listening Activity

Choose the right options while listening to someone talking about outbreaks and the strategies to fight them.

1. The COVID-19 spread quickly while

- a) hospitals felt the pressure of social nets
- b) hospitals had difficulties to host the sick
- c) people weren't sufficiently informed yet
- d) people weren't primed enough to face it

2. There's more than one possibility to face an outbreak:

- a) speed it up, slow down and immunize, organize and smash it
- b) run against it, define the settings, evaluate and combine them
- c) mark the progress, define the result together with the danger
- d) contain anxieties and try to develop a collective mass strategy

3. Accelerate the virus means that:

- a) the contagion will go away definitely
- b) ill people's requests will be all satisfied
- c) people's invulnerability will be forever
- d) lots and lots of people lose their lives

4. In pandemic phase, earning time to study new medicines implies to:

- a) detect and isolate sick people
- b) organize governance strategies
- c) meet people only twice a week
- d) be aware of social modifications

5. In urban agglomerations, during circumstances of this kind,

- a) everything will improve straightaway
- b) family cooperation is greatly important
- c) stop-and-go work periods are possible
- d) medical research gropes in the pitch dark

6. The right turning point for this solution is to:

- a) acquire skill and expertise in every field
- b) harmonize universally the various steps
- c) combine needs and urgencies of people
- d) improve every country's fiscal networks

7. The approaches considered through the years, see medical protections as the

- a) fastest and safest tactic to smash the virus
- b) most severe threat for humans as a whole
- c) origin of other viruses
- d) leader of virus control

Liceo Classico "Gioacchino da Fiore" – Rende (CS)
Prof.ssa Fabiola Salerno – a.s. 20/21

8. Medical investigations go on with the aim to have

- a) more jobs around the world
- b) less worrying everyday lives
- c) more financial opportunities
- d) less people in hospitals beds

From https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qi0edf_nJDo