THE INSANE ENGINEERING OF PERSEVERANCE ROVER

Create a webquest!

Start from here, <https://mars.nasa.gov/mars2020/>, and let your curiosity drive you within the site. Take notes, in the table below, of all your clicks, the reasons why you chose them and what you discovered while surfing. If you like, add images and videos but, please, don't forget to explain your choices!

Here are some phrases as useful examples:

Your reasons: I'd like to... I don't know... It's difficult to... How can people...? Really, I knew...

Your discoveries: I understood... I found interesting... I was impressed by... I deepened... I realized...
